

Clinic will provide instruction and drills in the fundamentals of playing the most demanding and critical position in the game of football:

- *ballhandling
- *dropback, sprint-out, play action, and shotgun pass drops and sets
- *throwing fundamentals
- *reading defenses
- *tips for off-season improvement
- *leadership

Accuracy, long ball, and ballhandling competitions will be conducted.

“Last summer was my first time evaluating QB’s at Coach Schneider’s camp. The campers were always involved in a drill or in some form of competition. With the large number of coaches involved, the one-on-one coaching with positive reinforcement was excellent. Coach Schneider is a very hands-on director. With all of the young talented campers I am looking forward to this year’s camp” -John McCallister, Director of McCallister Scouting Report

Camp Director: Mike Schneider

In 22 years as head coach at Miamisburg and Wayne High Schools, Coach Schneider earned a reputation as “The Passing Guru”. His teams featured a passing attack that contributed to a .672 winning percentage and six Western Ohio League championships.

For 17 years he ran the Ohio Passing Camp, which attracted athletes from throughout southwestern and central Ohio to sessions at Franklin, Upper Arlington, and Wayne High Schools.

He now coaches QB’s at Northmont H.S., where his son Lance is Head Coach. Two recent Northmont QB’s, Tyler Horner and Clay Belton, both received Division I scholarships and were named MVP of MVFCA All-Star games. The Thunderbolts have won 7 GWOC championships.

He has directed the QB Clinic for 10 years.
